

Barefoot Books US Sales Intern

Job Description: Gain valuable professional sales experience within a fast-paced, independent children's publishing company.

As the US Sales Intern you will be responsible for daily tasks such as account prospecting, review copy mailings, and data entry and maintenance. You will manage longer-term, goal-oriented projects like researching and pitching our key titles to existing and prospective accounts, helping sales team members prepare and send out marketing materials, and implementing dedicated outreach to both our US and international partners.

While you will have the opportunity to coordinate with other departments in the company, specifically Marketing, Design and Editorial, this is a sales-centered position requiring an applicant with a strong personal drive who will help us achieve our team goals.

Qualifications: Excellent verbal and written communication skills. Availability two or more days per week preferred. In-person interview required.
