Introducing... Reach Out and Read's Newest Preferred Vendor, Barefoot Books!

At Barefoot, we believe that books have the power to change the world. We think that every child deserves to see themselves in the stories they read, and the best books are the ones children and caregivers treasure for years to come.

Over the last 30 years, we're proud to have put more than 35 million books into the hands of children around the world. As the newest preferred vendor for Reach Out and Read, we are thrilled to be a part of their mission to strengthen families through shared reading and, together, expand children's access to high-quality books that inspire a lifelong love of reading.

We're delighted to offer you curated bundles of over 400 beautifully crafted books that spark curiosity and capture imaginations. To meet the growing need for bilingual materials, our Barefoot Bilinguals collection (see pages 58 and 60) ensures that more families — whether they're bilingual, English language learners, or preserving their heritage — can experience the joy of storytelling in the languages that matter most to them. You'll also find innovative formats throughout this catalog, including our durable Baby-Proof series (see page 8), accordion-style Belly Time books (see page 14), and engaging Barefoot Singalongs (see page 38).

Thank you for everything you do to support Reach Out and Read's important mission. We're so excited to work with you!

With gratitude,  Nancy Traversy, CEO & Co-Founder and the Barefoot Books team

About Barefoot Books
Better Books for a Brighter World

Barefoot Books is an independent, award-winning, women-founded children's publisher. Since 1992, we have created beautiful books for babies and children that cover themes such as early learning, social-emotional development, global awareness, health & wellness, sustainability, and STEAM. Now, after over 30 years, we are proud to have put 35 million books into the hands of children around the globe.

"I think it's so important for children to see themselves depicted in books, but also see other children depicted in books. I have seen first-hand how my students respond to the books and they love them" — Jamaica Stevens, Educator

"Every page of every book encourages empathy, compassion and understanding. What a wonderful message to send to our kids!" — Rosemary Kiladitis, Librarian and Parent

5 Things to Know About Participating in Reach Out and Read

- 1 Reach Out and Read promotes healthy children and strong families! Through partnership with clinicians, Reach Out and Read equips parents and caregivers with guidance and books to make reading with their young children a meaningful part of daily life. Sharing books and resources, clinicians encourage positive, language-rich interactions that support early brain growth — foundational to a young child's healthy development and long-term well-being. As recommended by the American Academy of Pediatrics, Reach Out and Read encourages sites to provide books for families at well-child visits from birth to age 5. Learn more at reachoutandread.org/impact.
- 2 Reach Out and Read works best when ALL providers are trained and the model is implemented clinic wide. All staff engage in responsive interactions with the child, encourage excitement about the book, and support the importance of shared reading.
- 3 Reach Out and Read partners with Barefoot Books, an approved vendor, to provide high-quality, low-cost books for Reach Out and Read sites.
- 4 Reach Out and Read is much more than a book giveaway program. Part of what makes Reach Out and Read so effective is the conversation and guidance from clinicians provided in tandem with the book. Fully integrating the book into the well-child visit is key to helping families build bonds through books and achieve the outcomes demonstrated in our evidence.
- 5 Most Reach Out and Read sites receive support from a local Affiliate that can help provide implementation, coaching, and funding assistance.

Visit reachoutandread.org/affiliates to see if your area is supported by a local Reach Out and Read Affiliate. Unless otherwise indicated, Reach Out and Read sites are responsible for raising their own book funds.

If you have any questions, please contact your local Affiliate directly or info@reachoutandread.org.

“Reach Out and Read is a powerful intervention that goes well beyond a simple book giveaway...In addition to the family going home with a new book, they also leave appointments armed with information, tools, and resources”

— Peggy Maguire, President of Cambia Health Foundation

About Reach Out and Read

Reach Out and Read leverages books, clinicians, and pediatric well-child visits to support caregivers in fostering healthy relationships with young children, from birth to age 5. Their evidence-based model is the only national pediatric literacy program endorsed by the American Academy of Pediatrics.

Books from Reach Out and Read reflect the children, families, and communities they serve with stories that are relevant, engaging, culturally affirming, and developmentally appropriate for young children. Barefoot Books, an approved Reach Out and Read vendor, provides high-quality, low-cost books for program sites.
